

January 2007

On January 10, Officers Wolfe & Krist were en route to a run when they noticed a young man sitting on the I-696 overpass looking down at traffic. They stopped their car and approached the individual and got him safely into the rear seat of the scout car. After speaking with officers , the young man admitted he was having problems and was contemplating suicide. He told officers that a friend had killed himself by jumping from the freeway. Officers contacted the young man's mother and transported him to the hospital for treatment. Due to their actions the young man was treated and a life was saved.

For their actions officers Wolfe & Krist are F.O.P Lodge #124 officers of the month, for the month of January.

December 4th 2007 P.O. Larry observed a suspicious subject running on 13 mile Rd near at Hoover. He followed the subject on foot and observed him drop a bag of tomatoes that said Cottage Inn on it. He advised dispatch of this and they advised they had just received an alarm from the Cottage Inn Pizza. Other Officers including P.O.*s Kriss, Swatowski & Stieber responded to the area and assisted him. With everyone*s effort, cash from the burglary & 3 suspect*s were arrested for this incident. As a result of his proactive patrol techniques, he discovered the burglary before the alarm was called in to dispatch. His immediate actions and radio transmissions enabled responding units to locate suspects and recovery of stolen property.

For this reason P.O. Larry is named F.O.P. #124 (Christopher M. Wouters) Lodge member of the month.
